Friend and Partner in Christ,

As we continue to draw closer to a new era, it is becoming more evident that it is unlike anything we have ever seen before! The year 2007 is shaping up to be a very interesting year; God is calling His people in holiness, righteousness and absolute integrity. Many over the years have been going through hardship, and 2006 seems as if it is the hardest anyone of us has ever been through. But now we need to ask the question: 'When was the last time you attended church; paid your tithes, or fasted?' (Hebrews 10 v 22-25, Psalms 122.) In fact, when was the last time you honored the Lord with the first fruits of your income? (Proverbs 3 v 9-10) When was the last time you truly sought the Lord? (Matthew 6 v 33) What have you done with the talents and gifts God has given you? Are you using those gifts to worship God or help build His house? Are you in obedience, worshipping Him as you ought to and doing what you need to do according to His word in order to be blessed?, (Deuteronomy 12 and Deuteronomy 28) Are you following God's instruction when He gives it to you to be blessed? (Genesis 22). When was the last time you told someone about Jesus? (Matthew 28: 18—20) Does God fit into your weekly schedule?.

Now, God is calling His people to renew their minds according to Romans 12: 1—2 and stay rapture-ready (1 Thessalonians 5 v 1-11; 1 Thessalonians 4: 16—18). A time of blessing and outpouring is coming for the faithful! A time of lamentation is coming for the world and the unfaithful! A shift is already taking place; God is calling His people to be ready and to work in the vineyard for Him! (Matthew 20) and to seek Him first (Matthew 6: 33) and all will be added. Do not seek the things of the world, seek God and trust in Him.

Enough 's Enough!

There comes a time in each of our lives when our backs are against the wall and the enemy is oppressing us and seeking to find new ways to plunder and destroy us! Our finances are hit hard; our health afflicted and our families in disarray!

The devil uses circumstances and people to oppress the people of God. Unfortunately, the people of God often allow themselves to be used by the devil from time to time to oppress their own.

What we as children of God must understand is that God will permit the oppression for several reasons. He may want to use it to make us stronger; He may want us to recognize our heart issues and faults and see how we deal with adverse or difficult situations and all of these things can either promote us or demote us spiritually and cause us to either receive or lose our blessings! He may also want us to gain the experience to encourage others somewhere down the line. These situations are also part of our training for us to learn the principles of spiritual warfare so that at “Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you.”

Isaiah 60: 1

every level we are prepared and can recognize the tactics of the enemy!

However, we must also be able to recognize when the season has changed and the oppression must end! Even in the Word of God it tells us that, “...weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning” (Psalm 30: 5b)

In some countries, it is easy to recognize the change of the seasons! But in other countries it seems like it is always Winter or for some, it's as if it is always Summer! However, that does not mean that in those countries seasons don't exist! Likewise, there are times when it is easy to recognize when our season has changed; however, there are times it is difficult to recognize and we have to discern that a particular season of oppression or rest has ended.

Do not allow the enemy to keep you in a position of adversity or oppression for longer than God desires it to be. Job's season of testing and trials was long, not only because of what God wanted to take out of Him, but mainly because of where God wanted to take Him! He almost stayed in that season longer than God desired Him to stay there, simply because of the words of others, (Job 22; Job 25) the words of his mouth, (Job 3) and the mind and heart of man, (Job 2: 9; Job 11; Job 15).

You must get to the point where you push away from the table where the enemy uses what you see to entice you! You must be determined to get what God has for you and be willing to move when He tells you to move!

Don't stay in the Winter when God wants to move you into your Spring! Do not allow the devil to keep you locked into a season of oppression! Enough is enough! Get up! Step out into the deep by faith and trust God to strengthen you for whatever He has ahead for you! Your morning is here! Confess the abundant life and live it!
